

Obituary

Born: Thursday, May 31, 1984

Died: Monday, March 25, 2019

Brian Dana Reaves, age 34, died unexpectedly Monday, March 25th, 2019 in his home in Allston, Massachusetts. He was born May 31st, 1984 in Leominster, to Dana and Karen Reaves. He was a 2003 graduate of Lunenburg High School and went on to study at Bunker Hill Community College. He was passionate about his career and spent 15 dedicated years in the restaurant industry in Boston, creating a loyal following of patrons wherever he worked.

He was a wonderful son, brother, uncle and friend, who would effortlessly light up any room when he stepped inside. He created a unique atmosphere with his inviting energy, and for that he will always be remembered. He is survived by his parents, Dana and Karen; brother Jeff; sister in law Angela; niece Evie and nephew Teddy. Being surrounded by his family and friends, vacationing at Sebago Lake, enjoying Disney World, and playing with his niece and nephew is when Brian was truly in his element.

Service Summary

Celebration of Life

2:00 PM Wed Apr 03, 2019

Apple Hill Farm and Country Club

143 Joslin Street
Leominster, MA 01453

In remembrance of Brian, a celebration of life will be held at Apple Hill Farm and Country Club located at 143 Joslin Street, Leominster, MA 01453 on Wednesday, April 3rd from 2 — 5 pm. Committal services will be private. It is the hope of loved ones that his legacy will carry on through their efforts to shed light on the realities of depression, and that sharing his story will encourage solace and purpose in the unending impact he leaves behind.